

MORE PROMPTS FOR MAGICAL WRITERS

FOR AGES 8 AND UP

1. What if shadows had a life of their own and could be controlled by a few people?
2. What if a person could travel through time by touching objects from the past?
3. A group of kids have to solve riddles and puzzles to save their town from a curse.
4. What if our dreams changed the physical world, and we woke up each day and things were different?
5. Write about a character who can speak to ghosts and helps them resolve unfinished business.
6. What would it be like if humans lived in floating cities above the clouds?
7. You open a book and discover it's a portal to a different dimension.
8. Imagine a character who can see into the minds of others and experiences their thoughts and emotions.
9. Invent a world where people wear masks that reveal their true selves when they are asleep.
10. What if a person discovered a hidden language that allowed them to talk to animals?
11. Describe a town where every person has a unique magical tattoo that grants them special gifts.
12. What if people's emotions were harvested and sold as energy?
13. Create a story about a group of kids who find a mysterious board game that transports them into a fantasy world.
14. What if someone could enter someone else's dream and help them overcome their problems?
15. What if there was a world where time was circular, and events repeated themselves in a never-ending cycles?

Launching in January 2025, Blue is a middle grade novel about a young mystic who has learned to hide her gifts. Will she own her powers before it's too late? Watch your email for more information.